

ChildC.008_4

In your opinion, what is still needed from the government to better address the greatest concerns for child care in your community? Select all that apply. Support the well-being of early childhood educators by ensuring that they have sufficient compensation and benefits (e.g., health care)

