

SWYC.007.a

These questions are about your child's (within the 0–5 age range) development and behavior. Think about what you would expect of other children the same age, and tell us how much each statement applies to your child. – Do you have any concerns about your child's learning or development?

